

Theology Interview Questions

1. Should we eradicate Christmas on the basis that it offends other religious groups?
2. Is emotion an important aspect of religion?
3. What is the best reason you can think of for believing in God?
4. Do the Gods command it because it is great, or is it great because the Gods command it?
5. How would you define faith?
6. Does religion have value regardless of if there is a God?
7. How large a role do you think church history has in theology?
8. Which arguments for the existence of God are most convincing?
9. Which of the arguments for the existence of God is the most convincing?
10. Is it morally wrong to attempt to climb a mountain?
11. Could there still be a second-coming if mankind had disappeared from the planet?
12. How is the portrayal of Jesus in John's Gospel different to his portrayal other Gospels?
13. How valuable do you think the Bible is to us today?
14. Do you think the Holy Spirit is a woman?
15. There is a Christian priest who regularly visits India and converted to be a Hindu priest. When he is in England he still practices as a Christian priest. What problems might this pose?
16. Do the Gods command it because it is great, or is it great because the Gods command it?
17. Could there still be a second-coming if mankind had disappeared from the planet?
18. Is religion of value whether or not there is a god?
19. How should a modern theologian use the Bible?